13th October 2019 - 18th Sunday after Pentecost (Green)

1st Reading Jeremiah 29.1 4-7      Psalm 66.1-11

2nd Reading 2 Timothy 2.8-15      Gospel Luke 17.11-19

Sentence:

What shall I return to the Lord for all his bounty to me? I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord, I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. Psalm 116.12-14

Collect:

Almighty God, in your wisdom you have so ordered our earthly life that we must walk by faith and not by sight: give us such trust in your fatherly care that in the face of all perplexities we may give proof of our faith by the courage of our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 66.1-11

O shout with joy to God, all the earth, sing to the honour of his name and give him glory as his praise.

Say to God 'How fearful are your works because of your great might your enemies shall cower before you.'

All the earth shall worship you and sing to you, and sing praises to your name.

Come then and see what God has done, how terrible are his dealings with the children of Adam.

He turned the sea into dry land, they crossed the river on foot then were we joyful because of him.

By his power he rules for ever, his eyes keep watch on the nations, and rebels shall never rise against him.

O bless our God, you peoples and cause his praises to resound,

Who has held our souls in life, who has not suffered our feet to slip.

For you have proved us, O God, you have tried us as silver is tried.

You brought us into the net, you laid sharp torment on our loins.

You let our enemies ride over our heads, we went through fire and water but you brought us out into a place of liberty.
