1st Reading Lamentations 1.1-6 Psalm 137
2nd Reading 2 Timothy 1.1-14 Gospel Luke 17.5-10

Sentence:

'Who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? But I am among you,' says the Lord, 'as one who serves.' Luke 22.27

Collect:

Generous God, whose hand is open to fill all things living with plenteousness:
make us ever thankful for your goodness, and grant that we,
remembering the account that we must one day give, may be faithful stewards of your bounty; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 137

By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept:
when we remembered Zion.

As for our harps we hung them up:
upon the trees that are in that land.

For there those who led us away captive
required of us a song:

and those who had despoiled us demanded mirth,
saying 'Sing us one of the songs of Zion.'

How can we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?

If I forget you, O Jerusalem:

let my right hand forget its mastery.

Let my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth:

if I do not remember you,

if I do not prefer Jerusalem above my chief joy.

Remember, O Lord, against the Edomites

the day of Jerusalem:

how they said 'Down with it, down with it,

raze it to its foundations.'

O daughter of Babylon, you that lay waste:

happy shall he be who serves you as you have served us;

Happy shall he be who takes your little ones:

and dashes them against the stones.
