8th September 2019 - 13th Sunday after Pentecost (Green)

1st Reading	Jeremiah 18: 1-11	Psalm	139: 1-5, 12-18
2nd Reading	Philemon 1-25	Gospel	Luke 14: 25-35

Sentence:

Whoever does not carry the cross and follow Jesus cannot be his disciple.

Luke 14: 27

Collect:

God of the ages, you call the Church to keep watch in the world and to discern the signs of the times: grant us the wisdom that your Spirit bestows, so that with courage we may proclaim your prophetic word, and complete the work you have set before us; through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Psalm 139: 1-5, 12-18

O Lord, you have searched me out and known me:
you know when I sit or when I stand, you comprehend my thoughts long before.

You discern my path and the places where I rest:
you are acquainted with all my ways.

For there is not a word on my tongue: but you, Lord, know it altogether.

You have encompassed me behind and before:
and have laid your hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me: so high that I cannot endure it.

For you have created my inward parts:
you knit me together in my mother's womb.

I will praise you, for you are to be feared:

fearful are your acts, and wonderful your works.

You knew my soul, and my bones were not hidden from you:
when I was formed in secret, and woven in the depths of the earth.

Your eyes saw my limbs when they were yet imperfect:

and in your book were all my members written;

Day by day they were fashioned: and not one was late in growing.

How deep are your thoughts to me, O God: and how great is the sum of them!

Were I to count them, they are more in number than the sand:
were I to come to the end, I would still be with you.
