Faithfulness in Service

Faithfulness in Service is the mandatory safety training course all Church volunteers MUST undertake every three years. It goes for about 2 hrs and keeps everyone safe. There are two sessions at St James in the next week so if you need to do it, or update your certification, please RSVP to Facilitator Leonie Wells at leoniecashman5@bigpond.com

The sessions are at :

Sat April 11 from 10 – 12 am

Wed 15 April from 6 – 8 pm

Alpha

We hope to run Alpha over 9 weeks beginning Thursday, May 7th. This is a well-known course which introduces people to the Christian faith in a relaxed, hospitable way (ie with food and fellowship). Please indicate your interest in assisting with hosting, providing a meal, set up, clean up etc. to support this ministry outreach by signing the form in the foyers of both Churches or by emailing Kaz in the office. A zoom meeting will held on Saturday, April 18th for those that have registered their interest to help.

Baptism at Pottsville

Herbie Harbison is being baptised by Rev. Constantine at St Marks in Pottsville, at the 10.30 am service this Sunday, 12 April. Please join us in praying for Herbie and his family as they celebrate this special occasion.

Tweed Anglican Network

The Tweed Anglican Network will meet at Lindisfarne on Sat April 11 at 11.30 am. Refreshments will be served so if you plan to attend please RSVP to Rev. Constantine at rector@apok.org

Contemporary Worship Service

The Contemporary Worship Service returns to St James at 5 pm this Sunday, 12 April with the usual array of great worship music and songs. Guest speaker Rev. Mandy Larkin, the new Rector of Murwillumbah, will share a message. All are invited to join us for a meal at the Kingscliff Beach Hotel afterwards.

Blessings

Constantine
